OVERVIEW

The Health Professions Act (HPA) section 29 (4) (b) enables the College of Audiologists and Speech-Language Pathologists-Newfoundland and Labrador (CASLP-NL) to set fee(s). The amount of the fee(s) should ensure that the College is able to carry out the duties as outlined under the HPA. Services provided by the College will incur costs that must be paid by the registered members or applicants. Fees set by the Newfoundland and Labrador Council of Health Professionals (NLCHP) are not governed by this policy.

POLICY

CASLP-NL establishes fees to discharge the duties of the College. CASLP-NL fees are set by the CASLP-NL Board. The fee breakdown is available in the NLCHP member portal upon registration/renewal.

PROCEDURE

- CASLP-NL Board will establish the Fee Schedule.
- Fees will be reviewed on a yearly basis by the CASLP-NL Board.
- Adjustments to the fee shall be communicated to all members in good standing 90 days before implementation.

- CASLP-NL fees will be managed by NLCHP. NLCHP will forward to the CASLP-NL all fees collected on behalf of the College.
- Fees set by the NLCHP are not governed by this policy.
